to it or to any part of this meeting. "I refuse to be a party to anything that looks like covering up."

Members who cast their votes for Smith for chairman were:

O. C. Thomas, L. C. Barley, Charles Henry Smith, George E. Vast, Albert Bryan, Carl Budwesky, F. G. Duval, Gardner L. Boothe, J. Randall Caton, Ashley E. Bladen, Courtland H. Davis, F. P. Russell, M. Carter Hall, R. W. Stump, C. Keith Carlin, R. B. Washington, Col. J. R. Caton, sr., and William P. Woolis.

Those voting for Judge Nicol were: John M. Johnson, Charles E. Corgan, Jud. J. K. M. Noron, Elyett E. Nicol, H. Noel Garner and Frank Stuart.

Most of the divorce business of "Little Reno" is handled by Carl Budwesky, Courtland H. Davis, R. W. Stump, C. Keith Carlin, R. B. Washington, William P. Woolis and Charles Henry Smith.

He is also assemblyman.

Charles Henry Smith is a member of the Virginia State Assembly. William P. Woolis is secretary of the newly formed Bar Association of Alexandria. Before his appointment to the corporation court bench of Alexandria in May, 1920, Judge Moncure was associated in the practice of law with Budwesky and Davis.

O. C. Thomas, formerly of Washington, moved to Alexandria only recently, and with the announced intention to be "near the scene of action where I can get quick divorces for clients."

At a meeting of the original investigating committee last Saturday,

Judge Norton resigned when Smith was named chairman and Keith Carlin was named to the vacancy caused by the resignation of M. Carter Hall. Caton sees "Fair Committee."

So much confusion resulted from the Saturday meeting that a new start was taken yesterday. The action of the association in naming the same committee was regarded as a vote of confidence in President J. R. Caton, sr., who originally appointed them.

"The committee was named impartially and for the best interests of the bar," Colonel Caton explained. "I believed they were men who would fearlessly and conscientiously perform the duty imposed upon them."

None of the members of the committee, Colonel Caton said, had been conspicuous as "divorce lawyers." "In fact, some of them handle no divorce cases," he said.

BATES GIRL TO STICK BY ARNOLD JAILED IN SOUTH

"Dolly," the police say, appears light-hearted and not aware of the seriousness of her plight. She says she is willing enough to return to Washington.

She told the matron she was to have been sent to the Northfield Seminary, Northfield, Mass., a few days following the date she disappeared from her Chevy Chase home, and it was believed here that her dislike of the plan proposed by her parents was partly responsible for her flight with Arnold.

"Dolly" admitted she had everything she could wish for at home, and that her parents were very good to her.

She was very much distressed when Arnold was arrested. Her identity remained hidden behind the name "Mrs. Arnold" until police here began investigation of the possibility of her being Dorothy Bates, missing from Washington since January 4.

Arnold and Bates Girl to Start Home From Tennessee Tomorrow

"Dolly" Bates, who left her Chevy Chase home without even a farewell note to her parents just twenty-one days ago this morning, will back-track on the home trail tomorrow. Determined to stick with her eloping partner despite his sickness in a Chattanooga hospital, "Dolly" refused to communicate with her parents until she was informed of Arnold's arrest on a warrant charging violation of the Mann white slave act.

This morning, however, Mrs. Bates, distracted over her daughter's disappearance and absence of word regarding her whereabouts, received a brief message from Dolly late last night. It read:

"Coming home with Roy tomorrow."

SHIPPING BOARD CLERKS PUT IN 15-HOUR SHIFT

Complain That This Was Piled on Sunday Work and Half-Holiday Refused.

Two score workers in the duplicated division of the Shipping Board showed up for work this morning with swollen heads and eyes and high tempers.

Forced to report for duty yesterday morning at 9 o'clock and work at top speed until 12:10 o'clock this morning, the workers were suffering from strain today as a result of the test of loyalty.

"It would not have been so hard," one of the sufferers said today, "but for the fact that we were also required to report for duty 10 o'clock on Sunday and work until 5 o'clock in the afternoon."

"We had expected some rest on Monday, but instead we were told to report promptly at 9 o'clock. Five hours of the afternoon meant nothing but 5 o'clock yesterday for we were held until after midnight today. We were forced to forego lunch at home and have a quick lunch down town."

"There is an unemployment situation in the city, why not give some of the unemployed work at the Shipping Board?"

STILLMAN QUILTS DUCK BOATS FOR DIVORCE COURT

N. Y. Millionaire Hastens Home From Carolinas to Contravert New Evidence of Fifi.

NORFOLK, Va., Jan. 24.—James G. Stillman, New York millionaire, who is suing his wife for divorce, gave up a perfectly enjoyable duck hunting trip to return to the metropolis to prove he had not gone to Europe with Florence Leeds, the other woman in the sensational domestic tangle.

Stillman, with a party of friends, went to Currituck Sound and other duck hunting grounds in North Carolina on board the yacht Wenonah II, owned by the New York millionaire.

Stillman kept his movements a secret and New York papers printed reports that he had gone to Europe and would probably begin divorce proceedings against his wife in Paris.

Stillman spent four days in the Carolina sounds. He had planned to spend ten days. He left his yacht and his friends, made Pullman reservations by wire from Currituck, N. C., and came to Norfolk, where he took a Pennsylvania train for New York.

Mr. Stillman's sudden departure was a surprise to members of his party and a sad disappointment to native hunters and soundmen of North Carolina. The millionaire and his party had been liberal with tips to the men who guided the visitors to the best hunting grounds. A number of ducks were killed by the New Yorkers. Wild duck dinners were the order of the day on board the Wenonah II. Stillman said he might return to the hunting grounds in a few days. He is planning to go to Florida on his yacht.

While in Norfolk, Stillman stopped in the office of an afternoon newspaper and bought a paper. Nobody identified him. He remarked to a companion that he found it hard to escape newspaper men wherever he went, but when he called on them they paid no attention to him.

Fire in Montreal Bank District.

MONTREAL, Jan. 24.—The whole financial district was imperiled by fire today in the Berthelot building. Fire spread to the Union building next door, but was confined to the two top stories of both structures. The Montreal Stock Exchange is just across the street.

MITES FOR POPE TO LAST 9 DAYS; MASSES BEGUN

Cardinals to Convene on Feb. 2 For Election of Successor to Benedict XV.

By FRANK E. MASON, International News Service.

ROME, Jan. 24.—The nine days' funeral ceremonies for the late Pope Benedict XV began at 9:30 o'clock this morning, when mass was celebrated by the senior canon of St. Peter's Cathedral.

A similar ceremony will be conducted each morning for the succeeding eight days. The burial of the pontiff will not take place until tomorrow, and the body will remain in state upon the catafalque in the basilica of St. Peter's from 9:30 to 4:30 o'clock today.

The non-Italian vote in the conclave has been reduced from 30 to 29 by the death of Cardinal Almaraz y Santos, archbishop of Toledo. The Italian membership of the sacred college is 51.

There is no change in the predictions as to Benedict XV's successor, except that Giuseppe Cardinal Prisco, archbishop of Naples, is now mentioned. Friends of Cardinal Prisco, however, are urging his election if the sacred college decides upon the election of a non-Italian. There seems little likelihood, however, that a non-Italian will be chosen.

Disregarding the reverence of their actions, the gambling houses in the fashionable watering places on the Italian and French Riviera are "making book" upon the outcome of the conclave next month. The men and women betters are allowed to wager on any of the sixty cardinals and the "house" will take the opposition side.

A prominent Washington attorney promised his wife to have his next suit made-to-measure. Husband-like he came here last Saturday for his first P-B suit. ## She could eat anything—without indigestion or sleeplessness

FOR a long time she had been troubled with gas after her evening meal. The distress was most painful after eating potatoes or other starchy foods, of which she was very fond.

Then she started taking two cakes of Fleischmann's Yeast every night between her evening meal and bedtime. She poured about a half cup of boiling hot water over the yeast cakes, stirred them thoroughly, added a little cold water and drank.

She found she could eat anything and sleep splendidly afterward.

Thousands of men and women are finding that Fleischmann's Yeast corrects stomach and intestinal troubles. It promotes the flow of bile and pancreatic juice. It is rich in the appetite-stimulating vitamin, so that appetite is always kept normal and you are protected from indigestion.
